

Maya Ellis

Ceramic Artist

Surrey, British Columbia
Email: malaellis@gmail.com

Profile

Ceramic artist creating functional pottery and decorative vessels through wheel throwing and hand-building. Interested in natural textures, thoughtful forms, and objects designed for everyday use. Experienced in developing small collections, testing surfaces, and supporting shared studio activities.

Skills

- Wheel throwing and trimming
- Hand-building through pinching, coiling, and slab construction
- Handle attachment and surface finishing
- Glaze application and test documentation
- Sketching and collection development
- Studio organisation and tool care
- Project planning and creative collaboration

Experience

Independent Ceramic Artist

2024–Present

- Develop small collections of mugs, bowls, serving pieces, and decorative vessels.
- Explore forms through sketches, prototypes, and material tests.
- Record glaze experiments to support future projects.
- Photograph and document completed work for a portfolio.

Community Pottery Studio Assistant

2023–2024

- Helped prepare materials and workspaces for beginner sessions.
- Supported students during basic hand-building activities.
- Organised shared tools and maintained tidy working areas.
- Assisted with displaying finished student work.

Education

Certificate in Ceramic Arts

2022–2023

Studied wheel throwing, hand-building, surface decoration, and the stages of ceramic production.

Selected Projects

Everyday Collection: Mugs, cups, and breakfast bowls focused on comfort and daily use.

Gather Collection: Serving bowls and platters developed for shared meals.

Quiet Corners: Hand-built decorative vessels inspired by natural forms.

Surface Studies: Ongoing experiments with texture and glaze.